

Ugly Side

Oliver Tree

It's your ugly side that you're showing
Keep your mouth shut and keep going
You're not someone worth knowing
Please girl, I hope you're joking

This is not a joke
Run into the ground
Send your whole life up in smoke
Freeze frame speed it up, it's a little slow
Fast forward to the middle though
Close call, don't fall
Break a hole through the wall
'Til you're yelling out loud like you're 50-feet tall
Screaming for attention like a smoke signal
Watch you freak out, baby don't scream out
Maybe one day you could catch me on the rebound

It's your ugly side that you're showing
Keep your mouth shut and keep going
You're not someone worth knowing
Please girl, I hope you're joking

Bitch this ain't a joke
Like the beanstalk broke
And the giant came through saying, "Fee, fi, fo."
What's real?
Real dudes don't steal 'cause they could Only desperate people should
What's your name?
What's your job?
Do you think you're Robin Hood?
Would you flee the scene in a hot-air balloon?
Maybe you're the bad guy dressed in a good guy's costume
Acting like they got the wrong dude
Bitch, can you tell this ain't a fucking cartoon?

It's your ugly side that you're showing
Shut your mouth and keep going
You're not someone worth knowing
Please go, I hope you're joking
