

Fall Again

Olivia Dean

I haven't seen you at a party yet, I
Don't know how you move
Let me in on all your secrets, I
Want your point of view

I'm dying to reach out and know you
But it doesn't feel like it's supposed to

I'm wondering if I'll ever fall again
It was easy not knowing what it meant (ooh-ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh-ooh)
The definition of us still escapes me now and then
I'm wondering if I'll ever fall again

What if I don't want to open up, and Go there with you
Know I've thought about it more than once, but
It's too much to show

I'm trying to think of ways to show you
'Cause it doesn't feel like it's supposed to

I'm wondering if I'll ever fall again
It was easy not knowing what it meant (ooh-ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh-ooh)
The definition of us still escapes me now and then
I'm wondering if I'll ever fall again

Wish I could understand my mind
Know I'm overthinking when nothing is missing
It happens every time
Just me, my thoughts, and I

Wonder if I'll ever fall again
It was easy not knowing what it meant (ooh-ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh-ooh)
The definition of us still escapes me now and then
I'm wondering if I'll ever fall again
