

Touching Toes

Olivia Dean

They say your body knows
When it's really something
When we're touching toes
That's the warmth of loving
And he flows and flows
Like a river in my mind

He's over more and more
Had to give him a whole drawer
To be honest kind of like
Seeing his trainers by the door
Though I could do it myself
It's kind of nice to have some help
Lately I've been thinking
Thinking what the hell

And I feel love
Like the real stuff
You don't know and then you know
That's how it goes

And I feel love
Like the real stuff
You don't know and then you know
That's how it goes

It's so obvious to say
I'm allergic to cliché
I mean what's three words
That we've all heard
But damn they do sound great

When they're coming out his mouth
And I think I like them now
And I'm understanding
What they're on about

'Cause I feel love
Like the real stuff
You don't know and then you know
That's how it goes

And I feel love
Like the real stuff
You don't know and then you know
That's how it goes

I don't mind
I quite like
Being yours is fine
Call me up
Call me twice
Call me every night

I don't mind
I quite like
Being yours is fine

Call me up
Call me twice
Call me every time
