

Drowning

Olivia Holt

The ocean is heavy
Your current is strong
Your pulling me deeper
Been here all along

Remember the time I first saw you
The thought you'd be mine it felt so good
One look in your eyes and I swear I knew
Of your kiss, your touch, your love

And I can't breathe
I'm struggling
My hearts at ease
Cause I'm drowning
Cause I'm drowning
In your love

This seems like the loves oh you got it all wrong
I thought I would fly (we'll fly, we'll fly)
And its getting harder the further we fall
But I'm feeling high (so high, so high)

I took all the lies and played the fool
I found there's no getting over you
And all of this time I never knew
Of your kiss, your touch, your love

And I can't breathe
I'm struggling
My hearts at ease
Cause I'm drowning
Cause I'm drowning
In your love

Oh, don't you break my heart now
Don't need no one no more
Give me love, give me someone to hold
Messing with the stars didn't get us very far, oh no, oh no
I'll never break your heart
Your what I'm looking for
All I need is you forever more
Messing with the stars didn't get us very far, oh no, oh no

And I can't breathe
I'm struggling
My hearts at ease
Cause I'm drowning
Cause I'm drowning
In your love (love)

Loving in your
Drowning (drowning)
Drowning (drowning)
Drowning in your love
In your love

Messing with the stars

Drowning in your love
