

Not Know

Olivia Lane

They say you know when you know, but what if I don't?
Tellin' me two months is long enough
'Cause that's when they knew they had the one
And they say that 28 is a little too late
To go and make a 180 change
But that's just where I'm at these days
I'm gettin' comfortable with being uncomfortable

So I'm takin' my time, lettin' my life go where I can't control
Lettin' it turn, tryin' to learn it's better when I
Roll with the change 'cause it's coming either way
Life don't happen when you stay the same, no
The more that I live, the more that I know
It's okay to not know
It's okay to not know

I guess I'm somewhere in between being young and naive
And feeling old and wise like I know the game
But is it like that at every age?
And I compare myself to everybody else
And it all looks good from the outside
But we've all got things that keep us up at night

So I'm takin' my time, lettin' my life go where I can't control
Lettin' it turn, tryin' to learn it's better when I
Roll with the change 'cause it's coming either way
Life don't happen when you stay the same, no
The more that I live, the more that I know
It's okay to not know
It's okay to not know

Where you're going, where you end up
Don't get caught up when you mess up
Learn to love the road you're walkin'
Every crossroad needs crossin'

So I'm takin' my time, lettin' my life go where I can't control
Lettin' it turn, tryin' to learn it's better when I
Roll with the change 'cause it's coming either way
Life don't happen when you stay the same, no
The more that I live, the more that I know
It's okay to not know

Where you're going
It's okay to not know
Da-da-da, da-da
It's okay to not know
