

Fade Out

Olivia O'Brien

Not to be cold but it's only been 'bout two or three days
Thought it was clear when you didn't hear back for two or three days
I don't really wanna ghost you but I think I gotta go soon and
Nowadays we don't really do communication
Or things of that nature, yeah
I don't wanna ghost you but
I don't really wanna go through
Just another uncomfortable conversation

So this is where I fade out
Yeah, this is where I fade out

Sorry to disappear
But I know that I can't say what you want to hear
You'll get over it
I never wanna give out fake love
Nothing you can say when my mind's made up
So sorry to disappear

But, baby, this is where I fade out
Yeah, this is where I fade out
You'll get over it
I never wanna give out fake love
Nothing you can say when my mind's made up
So I fade out

Don't pretend that you wanna hear all the reasons I'm not into you
I can let it all out, but I don't see how that would feel good to you
You don't really want closure, nah
You just want me to come over one more time
And honestly that's not gonna change a thing

So this is where I fade out
Yeah, this is where I fade out

Sorry to disappear
But I know that I can't say what you want to hear
You'll get over it
I never wanna give out fake love
Nothing you can say when my mind's made up
So sorry to disappear

But, baby, this is where I fade out
Yeah, this is where I fade out
You'll get over it
I never wanna give out fake love
Nothing you can say when my mind's made up
So sorry to disappear

You think I'll come down with a case of regret
But I trust my gut and it ain't let me down yet
So why we gotta have an awkward moment?
I already know where this is going
I ain't gonna change my mind, change my mind

But, baby, this is where I fade out

Yeah, this is where I fade out
You'll get over it
I never wanna give out fake love
Nothing you can say when my mind's made up
So sorry to disappear (I'm sorry)
But, baby, this is where I fade out
Yeah, this is where I fade out
You'll get over it
I never wanna give out fake love
Nothing you can say when my mind's made up
So I fade out
