

Bittersweet

Olivia Ong

I woke up none morning to find my love gone
My love is gone for you too
Replaced by something new
It's not another guy but of a mind's that been renewed a new feeling revelation of you and I

That we can never be together
It seems like we'll stay that way
Hoping that the pain will truly go away

Oh, it's friends we'll remain till the end of the day
Platonic doesn't change a thing for me
While it lasted it was bittersweet altogether
My affections hasn't disappeared

Falling in love's easy
Head up in the clouds
Put your feet back on the ground first love is hard to forget
I'll take my stand now to resolve this situation then it's intangible, improbable, you and I

That we can never be together
It seems like we'll stay that way
Hoping that the pain will truly go away

Oh, it's friends we'll remain till the end of the day
Platonic doesn't change a thing for me
While it lasted it was bittersweet altogether
My affections hasn't disappeared

You already said to her I do to forever
Breaking my heart in two singing
You already said to her I do to forever
Breaking my heart in two singing

Oh, it's friends we'll remain till the end of the day
Platonic doesn't change a thing for me
While it lasted it was bittersweet altogether
My affections hasn't disappeared

Oh, it's friends we'll remain till the end of the day
Platonic doesn't change a thing for me
While it lasted it was bittersweet altogether
My affections hasn't disappeared
