

Affection

Ollie

Wait, wait, I only care about you, sorry I'm just not the type
to show affection

Say, say, everything you want to, give me feelings that I never have to question

Wait, wait, I only care about you, sorry I'm just not the type
to show affection

Say, say, everything you want to, give me feelings that I never
have to question

I hear echos in my head that need to stop Drive me crazy talking right around the block
Your voice a melody that put my mind at ease Take me home on nights I'm stranded feeling lost Within, got no oxygen, I ran way too long, it just cost me fri ends
But I turned around, don't deserve you now, this ain't easy, ai n't easy
Saying, come pull me off the ledge, I know our love's not dead I fell into illusion, that why I'm saying just

Wait, wait, I only care about you, sorry I'm just not the type

to show affection

Say, say, everything you want to, give me feelings that I never
have to question

Wait, wait, I only care about you, sorry I'm just not the type
to show affection

Say, say, everything you want to, give me feelings that I never
have to question

I care, I always care, don't just leave I hold I'm holding onto memories
I know that I'm bad showing what's inside
I held it under my tongue selfishly
But that going change tomorrow, done projecting sorrow I'ma pick you up whenever you need Sometimes it takes me falling, to see pain I'm causing I'm too stubborn I don't wanna believe

(Please) pull me off the ledge
I know our love's not dead
I fell into illusion That why I'm saying just

Wait, wait, I only care about you, sorry I'm just not the type
to show affection

Say, say, everything you want to, give me feelings that I never
have to question

Wait, wait, I only care about you, sorry I'm just not the type

to show affection

Say, say, everything you want to, give me feelings that I never have to question
