

Perfect Timing

Ollie

Wilding, I been wildling
In my head but it ain't show, don't play no violin
I can't lose I trust I won't, there no deciding
I ain't wait for shit I go, that talk is silent
I thought my pain would make me weaker, not Jack Reacher
I want my peaches down in Georgia like Justin Bieber
If it's coming from the source, don't need all that sweetener
Did it on my own, made it that much cheaper

Wilding, I been wildling

All in let's go for broke
They think they know they don't
I'm in my bag again
I put in the work it show
Just talking louder than
Most of y'all still do the most
I'm way too adamant, it's in my dna
Late night driving kick my seat back, feel like rehab
I one take'd this, old soul
Y'all can miss me, with that fake shit
Wait around, I ain't killing time, for some pay slip
Politicians taxing either way
Playing safes a problem
Look on my face is solemn
I can't be losing focus
It's on the line I'm all in
I'm all in take no breaks keep

Wilding, I been wildling
In my head but it ain't show, don't play no violin
I can't lose I trust I won't, there no deciding
I ain't wait for shit I go, that talk is silent
I thought my pain would make me weaker, not Jack Reacher

Let it hurt, let it go
Holding on won't change the past that I know
I'm so glad I been through shit, it's how we grow
I came back I'm better than before

Let it hurt, let it go
Holding on won't change the past that I know
I'm so glad I been through shit, it's how we grow
I came back I'm better than before
