

Perfect

Ollie

And I know I'm not perfect
And I can be a lot
Say my name that you've been cursing
Know you'd be better with me
Gone, gone, gone, gone, gone, gone
I know I'm not perfect
And I can be a lot
You say my name that you've been cursing
Know you'd be better with me
Gone, gone, gone, gone, gone, gone

Yeah
I know I'm not perfect like I wanna be
Lot of moments from my past keep on haunting me
I guess I'm struggling with choices that I made
Do my best to be brave but I feel like an anomaly
Cause like, I'm always different from the rest
I worry bout too much and it's making me be depressed
I hate you then I love you, that's all in the same breath
Some days wishing you would leave cause I know I'm a train wreck
Please don't, stay here by my side
Maybe us together we can find a way to fly
I can be a manic, little crazy but I try
Never wanna hold you back, even if that mean goodbye
Roll your eyes with a sigh
That probably don't make you feel loved
A wall flower child, not used to being enough
So I push away emotions, I'm good at breaking your trust
I get caught up with some demons that filling my mind with love so

And I know I'm not perfect
And I can be a lot
Say my name that you've been cursing
Know you'd be better with me
Gone, gone, gone, gone, gone, gone
I know I'm not perfect
And I can be a lot
You say my name that you've been cursing
Know you'd be better with me
Gone, gone, gone, gone, gone, gone

It's like
You're focused on being a better person
I'm praying every morning, I truly hope that it's working
Attention to the details, something I know for certain
That's improving on my anger when words I'm used to cursing
Cause damn, character's what other people see
Who am I if I can't even practice what I preach
Got to, do better and more than just writing letters
Think you told me this before now both of us wanting better
Still I'm young, it's harder to accept than to listen
I hear all that you say but never change my position
Understand that taking action is something totally different
Probably why you hear me out and always been so forgiving
Guess the point, I think I'm tryna make with this song
Is I can be a lot and lose the place I belong
Obvious I bring you down but somehow we carry on

And the truth is, I know that you're better off when I'm gone cause

And I know I'm not perfect
And I can be a lot
Say my name that you've been cursing
Know you'd be better with me
Gone, gone, gone, gone, gone, gone
I know I'm not perfect
And I can be a lot
You say my name that you've been cursing
Know you'd be better with me
Gone, gone, gone, gone, gone, gone

I know I'm not perfect
And I can be a lot
You say my name that you've been cursing
Know you'd be better with me
Gone, gone, gone, gone, gone, gone
