

Possible

Ollie

People gonna come and try to knock you down
Rather see you hurt, laying on the ground
But when they try and tell you no
Remember anything is possible

I love this music but Still I question if it's real, 'cause just two years ago I only wrote these songs so I could heal
But now I'm getting all these messages from people 'round the world
It's so crazy, this a feeling that nobody else can steal
We in this together, I told you
It's more than just music, it's more than my views, it's More than those people who told me again and again that we never could do th is
So go ahead and laugh now, funny people coming back now
Even though they back, they in the background and I'm back rising with the f acts now and that's real
We came up with nothing, and we turned it to something
Talking bout life, talking 'bout love not what the radio wantin'
So fuck who they play now, none of us are relating to Panda
Turn off the camera that shit is musical cancer, I ain't got broads in Atlan ta
Swear this is everything
Man this music's all I got
I've been pouring out my soul, how could I not end up on top?
See, these days I'm chasing dreams, when in the past I've given up
I've got my faith, I've got my fans, together we can make it on, so let's go

People gonna come and try to knock you down
Rather see you hurt, laying on the ground
But when they try and tell you no
Remember anything is possible
Anything is possible
Remember anything is possible
So when they try and tell you no
Remember anything is possible

Mom and Dad are still nervous, see they don't get what I'm doing
But they can't see the vision, they don't get the dream I'm pursuing Just 'cause I ain't got money, doesn't mean this isn't a movement
When I've been putting all my blood, sweat, and tears in this music
Feel like I'm always counting out, but I just don't care what people say
I know I'm putting in the work, hoping that pretty soon it pays Hoping that I'm giving someone purpose, 'cause that's all you have done for me
I'm spillin' my heart, rapping the truth
Hope you know that won't ever change
Hate being stuck working this 9 to 5
Somedays I feel like I'm not alive
Till' I get home and start writing lyrics, it's a different world that'll ne ver die
Think I finally found passion, I just don't do this for myself
I'm always writing for the people, people who really need the help
'Cause I've been in those shoes, I know what pain can feel like
I've been lost and I've been down, barely sleeping at night
I used that pain to create dreams, I thought that couldn't be right
So, on the real, if not for y'all, I probably wouldn't be alive, so let's go

People gonna come and try to knock you down
Rather see you hurt, laying on the ground
But when they try and tell you no
Remember anything is possible
Anything is possible
Remember anything is possible
So when they try and tell you no
Remember anything is possible
People gonna come and try to knock you down
Rather see you hurt, laying on the ground
But when they try and tell you no
Remember anything is possible
Anything is possible
Remember anything is possible
So when they try and tell you no
Remember anything is possible
