

Speed Limit

Ollie

I fell way too hard again
My heart hates to call you friend
Saying that I'm fine, I can't pretend
Not until you're mine, this pain won't end
I fell way too hard again
My heart hates to call you friend
Saying that I'm fine, I can't pretend
Not until you're mine, this pain won't end

Yeah, I'm gon' need a speed limit
'Cause I'm falling too fast
Yeah, I'm gon' need a speed limit
Or eventually I'll crash

Rob me of my love, felt the pain for a month
Like nothing is enough, I'm just saying how it was
I tried to buy you flowers but you didn't seem to care
Woulda gave you all my hours, never felt like you were here
Now I sleepwalk talking to the ghosts in my dreams
I don't need much, I just want your focus on me
Never change up, tell you that I'm tired of your shit
But you know me too well, tend to change my mind quick

I fell way too hard again
My heart hates to call you friend
Saying that I'm fine, I can't pretend
Not until you're mine, this pain won't end

Yeah, I'm gon' need a speed limit
'Cause I'm falling too fast
Yeah, I'm gon' need a speed limit
Or eventually I'll-

Crashland, cold cans piled up in the cooler
Warn dogs, small talk, what you going to school for?
Got a cute laugh when you're nervous, know this
I ain't ever been this for certain, focus
I'm in overdrive, yeah, your life over mine, uhh (Overdrive)
I won't hit the breaks, yeah, 'til you look my way (Hit the breaks)
I'm addicted to the altitude
One more night, I might die on your avenue

I fell way too hard again
My heart hates to call you friend
Saying that I'm fine, I can't pretend (I can't pretend)
Not until you're mine, this pain won't end
I fell way too hard again
My heart hates to call you friend
Saying that I'm fine, I can't pretend
Not until you're mine, this pain won't end

Yeah, I'm gon' need a speed limit
'Cause I'm falling too fast
Yeah, I'm gon' need a speed limit
Or eventually I'll crash
