

Unforgettable

Ollie

Shadows settle on the place that you left
Our minds are troubled by the emptiness
Destroy the middle, it's a waste of time
From the perfect start to the finish line

Truth is; I think about you every single day
From the moment we first met to this moment today
You really amaze, whatever I felt, I can never explain
I fell so fast, you had different aims
It's stuck in my brain, the feelings remain
I remember waking up next to you like every day
And thinking that what we had was actually here to stay
But now what I realize that I was only really played
She wanted your ex to see and us was just a fake display
It's breaking me down, reminded of you by all that's around
These songs and roads, I'm losing my ground
I wish I could get up and out of this town
Now do I sound crazy at heart?
Because I'd rather go back to the start
Although I know its not so smart
I'm so sick of watching us falling apart
We battled and cried, I kept it inside
All that you said was probably a lie
I think it's time we break these ties
And move along with our own lives
It's hard to make someone feel love, only just open your eyes
And I don't wanna be just friends, I guess this means goodbye

Shadows settle on the place that you left
Our minds are troubled by the emptiness
Destroy the middle, it's a waste of time
From the perfect start to the finish line

Days and weeks would pass
I thought that we were history
Till one night I got your text and all it said is that you missed me
Honestly I cried, those feelings cut me deep inside
I tried to give the world to you, but the world to you was other guys
All that you loved was getting impaired
And finding some dude to mess up your hair
So how could you care?
You never were there, you never did care
So fuck all your lies, that's right, fuck all your lies
You just a waste of my time in disguise
I'm seeing the truth as I look in your eyes
You dragged me along and there's nothing inside
But still I'm here, these memories bringing me near
I picture us together, but it's only bringing me tears
I thought that you loved me, you kissed and you hugged me
Your perfect appearance just hid that your ugly
I knew you were fake, but never this slutty, you leaving me bloody
Like damn, fuck all this love, I'm swearing it doesn't exist
That line was just a lie, I felt it when I kissed your lips
I guess that's why I'm pissed, these the moments I miss
But now we're over and done, lost and simply unable to fix

Shadows settle on the place that you left

Our minds are troubled by the emptiness
Destroy the middle, it's a waste of time
From the perfect start to the finish line
