Love you so much, I can't pipe down
No longer looking for wife now
I'm 'bout six seconds from tied down
She love me when no one knows
Can't help me now even myself
I love you like oh my God
She seems to love all my scar
Tellin' all the girls I'm on your side
Tellin' all my boys I'm on your side (My side)
No other, she be the one, she, every time I try (Why)
