

So Good

Omar Apollo

Know you got a thing to do instead
But it's running away (Away)
Hold you to my heart and to my chest
Got me hurting my brain (My brain)

Say it's obvious that I don't need your lovin', babe
(Baby, what'd you say?)
Why would I? Baby, what'd you say?
It's wrong and I need you, oh I

And I want you all
For a minute
When did you turn so sensitive?
And I want you all
Baby, please
Why would you go and turn it down?
Yeah, everything you want
Is everything I need
So why you walk away?
This love is like a dream
But baby, turn around
You had me from the start
I'm losing all control
So go and break my heart

So good
So good

Took a couple months to get upset
Been avoiding the pain (The pain)
Maybe I should go and catch my breath
I've been tryna explain (Explain)

Say it's obvious that I don't need your lovin', babe
(Baby, what'd you say?)
Why would I? Baby, what'd you say?
It's wrong and I need you, oh I
