

Enough For 2

Omarion

All she ever wanted to see was commitment
But she could never seem to get away
Stuck in the city of heartbreak
Down on luck, but she still goes the distance, oh
In search of escape
Get harder every chance that she takes

I know time is moving slow
Especially when you're moving uphill
But, please, don't let it go
Trust me, time will show
That what you're looking for is right here

You try to tell me that love can't live here
It's not a real thing, but, girl, I got a point to prove
I know you're tired of being sad and lonely
No love to show me, but, girl, I got enough for two
I got enough love to build you up
If you only trust like a doctor, I'll fix what's broken
Don't tell me that love can't live here
It's not a real thing, 'cause, girl, I got enough for two
I got enough love for you
Trust me, time will show that what you're looking for is right here

Walk with me and tell me what you're missing
You say that you want to shake up things
I can be your earthquake
Let me be uplifting to your spirit
I know you're use to airplanes, but I'm talking outer space

I know time is moving slow
Especially when you're moving uphill
But, please, don't let it go
Trust me, time will show
That what you're looking for is right here

You try to tell me that love can't live here
It's not a real thing, but, girl, I got a point to prove
I know you're tired of being sad and lonely
No love to show me, but, girl, I got enough for two
I got enough love to build you up
If you only trust like a doctor, I'll fix what's broken
Don't tell me that love can't live here
It's not a real thing, 'cause, girl, I got enough for two
I got enough love for you

You baby
You baby
Baby, baby
Whoa, whoa
