

Guilty

Omarion

911 got a call
Said hurry send the ambulance please
They asked me who was involved
And I told them that the victim was me
Stabbed me in the back and left me on the street
Now who would do this to me I
I thought the suspect got off clean
That's when they saw your finger prints on the scene oh

As much as I don't wanna believe it
Whatever it is it's plain to see
I don't wanna know the truth but I need it
And the jury finds you guilty guilty uh huh
For breaking my heart
You're guilty guilty uh huh
Like murder in the third degree

Oh shorty's a criminal (and I never seen it coming)
Wouldn't have guessed it for a hundred years
For years u did it
You even told me u admit it
But I told them not my baby
That's what they told me that's been happening daily
Mmm they threw the pictures out on the table
Wanted me to point you out but I wasn't able Cause I thought I fell in love with an angel
Never thought something so beautiful could be fatal

As much as I don't wanna believe it
Whatever it is it's plain to see (see)
I don't wanna know the truth but I need it (I need it)
And the jury finds you guilty guilty uh huh (oh whoa whoa ho)
For breaking my heart
You're guilty guilty uh huh
For breaking my heart yea yea
Like murder in the third degree (third degree)

Girl all the things you did to me
Should be a felony
They should lock you away and burn the key
Now all I do is sip Hennessy to get rid of memories
Cause every thought of you brings misery
Girl all the things you did to me
Should be a felony
They should lock you away and burn the key
Now all I do is sip Hennessy to get rid of memories
But I can't escape the fact that you're guilty yea

As much as I don't wanna believe it
Whatever it is it's plain to see
I don't wanna know the truth but I need it
And the jury finds you guilty guilty uh huh
For breaking my heart
You're guilty guilty uh huh
Like murder in the third degree

Murder in the third degree I'm loonely

Nobody loves but you [sigh] (fucked up)
Nobody ever loved me like you did
Nobody ever lied like you did
Like you did (like you did)
