

Serious

Omarion

There's no need to lie
'Cause baby, I don't have to
Truth is, I'm down for you

Caught me by surprise
Before I knew it, I was caught in your vibe

That type of energy is all that I'm on
More than your body is turning me on
That type of pressure can't leave it alone

When I thought I had enough
I thought forever I would be alone
But girl, you showed me that damn it, I'm wrong
That type of pressure can't leave it alone
If I wanted to, I could do it, babe

'Cause it's that feeling
It's that feeling that you get when it feels serious
And it's getting serious

This is more than I want you in tonight
Feels more like I want you here for life
To make it clear to you
This feels serious

I was on the run, I wasn't committed
Now you got control, girl, I must admit it
Damn, I use to think love was just a feeling
I guess that's how it feels when you ain't done healing and that's why

You caught me by surprise
Before I knew it, I was lost in your eyes

That type of energy is all that I'm on
More than your body is turning me on
That type of pressure can't leave it alone

When I thought I had enough
I thought forever I would be alone
But girl, you showed me that damn it, I'm wrong
That type of pressure can't leave it alone
If I wanted to, I could do it, babe

'Cause it's that feeling
It's that feeling that you get when it feels serious
And it's getting serious

This is more than I want you in tonight
Feels more like I want you here for life
To make it clear to you
This feels serious

This is more than I want you in tonight
Feels more like I want you here for life
It's getting serious
So serious

'Cause you're my type of company
