Omarion

See you Saturday in toxic
But you ain't nothin' like them girls that you came with No eye contact done locked in
Then I put you in my phone as my main chick
I can tell by the way
You the type to cook a nigga meal by the way
You the type to pay a nigga bill by the way
Twerk it like you're doing it for real by the way

One hotel, five star suite
Sun goes down, watch her turn in to a freak
Hundred bad bitches, all I see
Is you, you you you you you

Keep it spontaneous, we're breaking all the rules 'cause I can, yeah
When you on top you know a nigga can't have her understand, no
When you get tempted while you're looking I'm looking for a freak, yeah
We can keep it deadly yeah you know I'm talking seven days a week, yeah
Me and you, ain't hurt nobody
What we do, don't tell nobody
I knew yeah, before it started
What we do, don't think about it

Just show me what you're talking
(Show me what you're talking) (4x)
Show me what you're talk, show me what you're talk
Show me what you're talkin' bout, show me what your talk
Just show me what you're talkin' bout
