

Cold Gate

OMB Peezy

Hey, I was just calling to say that it had nothing to do with you
You didn't change, it was me
Okay
See me down
See me down
I'm not sure what I trust either
See me down
See me down
Okay, huh

You can go and leave, I ain't trippin' if you change
You ain't love me, no way, huh
Sacramento County jail, found out I ain't got no bail
Lonely, leanin' on a cold gate
You said you won't change
When I left, you went back to your old ways, huh
But I'll be okay, I guess

It's what's expected of me
Forced out in the streets, I ain't expect to love it
When we first had met, you ain't expect to love me
My street life gave you a thrill until the shit got ugly
Huh, guess you wasn't ready for me
Behind these bars, to protect my heart, we should just dead it, fuck it
(Man, fuck it)
'Cause I can't trust you, got a knife and you ain't scared to cut me
You weren't scared to rush and leave, it was already fuck me
I ain't do shit but keep it real, though, I was livin' rugged
If you want fake greengrass, then go watch Teletubbies
If you rich and aren't happy, then you flexin' nothin'
Huh, okay
Spent all my time on you, I need a donation
Got locked up, was forced to give you your space
You rushed and went back to your old ways

You can go and leave, I ain't trippin' if you change
You ain't love me, no way, huh
Sacramento County jail, found out I ain't got no bail
Lonely, leanin' on a cold gate
You said you won't change
When I left, you went back to your old ways, huh
But I'll be okay, I guess
