

Drifting Away

OMB Peezy

Drifting away

Hope you ain't make it too far now
I'ma find you wherever you are now
Caught a jab soon as I left my guard down
Know this type of love hit a lil' harder
You the one who left me with this new scar I found
In the mirror tryna patch up the wound
I just pray that you ain't make it too far now
I promise I'll be next to you soon

Drifting away, yeah

Mm

I'm drifting away, ooh, yeah

Mm

I'm drifting away, ooh, yeah

I'm drifting away

I'm losin' my head, it ain't true what you said
Said it was love, I believed it, somethin' I truly regret
Your heart ain't beat for me no more, I assumed it was dead
Travelin', busy on the road, ain't no room to be stressed
I approve of this message, closer I move to the edge
Push me right now, I ain't scared
You can call me when you tired, know you missin' my bed
Text and she leave me on read
Texas, right now, I'm in Houston, right where I need to be at Hurtin', I'm tired of these meds, I'm fightin' wars in my head
Hopin' I run into you, I'm right where I need to be at
I hope I'm right where I need to be at now

Or I'm drifting away, yeah

Mm

I'm drifting away, ooh, yeah

Mm

I'm drifting away (Ooh, yeah, ooh)

I'm drifting away

I'm drifting away

I'm drifting away, ooh, I

I'm drifting away

I'm drifting away

I'm drifting away

Closer, closer, closer, closer, closer, closer, closer, I'm closer

I'm drifting away

Mm, ah

Mm, ah

Yeah
