

I Don't Even Know

OMB Peezy

She keep calling like, "What's wrong with you, baby? I don't even know no more"

Yeah

Uh

She keep calling like, "What's wrong with you, baby?" (With you, baby), "I don't even know, I don't know no more" (I don't even know, I don't know no more)

I don't even know, I don't know no more (I don't even know, I don't know no more)

I don't even know, I don't know no more (I don't even know no more)

Uh, used to think I knew the reason that they hate me, I don't even know no more

Uh, livin' on the edge, it's been my way of life for years

Adrenaline might feel good, but it only lead to dropping tears

Even when I feel good, still don't even know how to feel

'Cause I can be in a good mood in here, my partner just got killed

Fuck up everything with a phone call, my cousin hug himself

I'm wondering why he ain't blow his dome off instead of torturing himself

It's fucked up when you go through it and people see it and they don't care

Fucked up when you go through it and people see it and they don't help

Shit, what's left? Quiet as kept, we took his breath, me and my partner

On the way back home, a killer, but I came out the house a robber

Wicked labels stunt your growth and start to act like you the problem

Shit, I don't even know what to say when my fans ask why I ain't dropping

Peer pressure, you can't try me

They gon' ask why I ain't popping

In a world full of young niggas who shootin' shit just to be popular

Like Picasso, paint the picture of the day the streets adopted

Look, my mama, she was there, but I was starving and out of options

She keep calling like, "What's wrong with you, baby? I don't even know no more"

Uh, all out of options, you couldn't handle my problems

My partner wanna kill my partner and I can't stop it (I don't even know no more)

Like, what's the problem? I'm all out of options
My partner wanna kill my partner and I can't stop it (I don't e ven know no more)
