(What is Black Ice?)
(Oh, yeah, lil' Frank made this right here, yeah)
Look
(Black Ice, you too hard)

I'm so in love with the thought of you, probably wouldn't be the same without you
Write your name in the back of my brain to make sure I ain't forgot you
Lil' Wayne couldn't be this dedicated to find out more about you
I gotta put more time in the game and unlock you
She got her guard up
You the type of girl I'd go to war for
All these other bitches, you the one my dick get hard for
Put my hands behind her back, she try to run as I go farther
Put my hands behind her back, tryna crawl off as I go deep in her
Pussy feel like it was made for me, might go to sleep in her
Teach me how to love, I don't know nothin', bae, I'm a beginner
Baby, you ain't got no cheap nigga, get greedy, then I can't eat with you
And the way she ride that dick, I feel her rain down on me
And I know when she 'bout to cum, so I do that same lil' motion
After she bust, I flip her over, then I bust her shit open
Notice and pay attention to how the way she react when I'm stroking
I'm on some project shit, need a hoodrat bitch
She told her friends, "Peezy got some good-ass dick"
Grab her neck and bend her over, give her that wood up in the kitchen
Say I'm trippin', got her burnin', she tryna cook me some grits
Wanna love, you gotta earn it, ain't talkin' 'bout buyin' her shit
She want your time, you ain't got enough, throw a fit like the kid
Don't follow me and I don't follow her, but she know she my bitch
Don't follow me and I don't follow her, but she know this her dick

Bitch, you ain't never had a love like this (You ain't never had a love, you ain't never had a love like this)
Bitch, you ain't never met a thug like this (You ain't never met a thug, you ain't never met a thug like this)

Look, emotional decisions never work, think we should take some time
I fucked up in the past, but we gon' last, hope you can see you mine
And when you can't stand me, but need a companion, you can hit my line
Anytime, ain't gotta move fast when you ain't got a finish line
And I bet you ain't never met a thug like this
We ridin' 'round with a stick, you feel protected when you with me
Let 'em touch you, they gon' get it, I'ma rush 'em with this glizzy
If it's fuck me, it ain't fuck you, know them ain't your real feelings
And plus I'm in the streets, you know my head gone
Look, look, but when you call my phone, you know I'm headin' home
I'm leaving, you do me dead wrong
'Cause I can't chase a bitch just like my legs gone, it's Peezy

Bitch, you ain't never had a love like this (You ain't never had a love, you ain't never had a love like this)
Bitch, you ain't never met a thug like this (You ain't never met a thug, you ain't never met a thug like this)
Look, bitch, you ain't never had a love like this (You ain't never had a love, you ain't never had a love like this)
Uh, uh, bitch, you ain't never met a thug like this, yeah, yeah (You ain't never met a thug, you ain't never met a thug like this)
