

Need Your Space

OMB Peezy

Look, who else I'm supposed to lean on when times get hard?
Who the fuck gone be my piece when I get tired of hearing noise
Who the fuck gone take my place? Feel like nobody better
And you know that baby
I relax you mind so if you leave you won't go back crazy

Say you wanna leave me, okay
I see you got your reasons, okay
Say you never needed me, okay
I see that you just needed your space

My hoes don't feel like hoes
Moving too fast, I can't keep up with this
I keep calling your phone, but you don't pick up
You must be sucking dick
And whatever nigga you fucking with, can't fuck with this
I'm clutching sticks, and I beat that pussy up
I know you still in love with fucking me
I see you don't know how to love baby
You just needed your way
Try hard to hide the pain
Still can see it in my face
And I got stars in the Rolls truck, yes I got plenty more space
Who could I run to?
I feel safe when I come to you
You were begging me to come to you
Now you don't answer when I come through, fuck
I ain't got nothing to prove
When you act funny, I'm acting funny too
You ain't say what I had done to you
Now I'm going and it's burning you, aww

Say you wanna leave me, say okay baby
I see you got your reasons, its okay baby
Say you never needed me, okay
I see that you just needed your space

Who else I'm supposed to lean on when times get hard?
Who the fuck gone be my piece when I get tired of hearing noise
Who the fuck gone take my place? Feel like nobody better
And you know that baby
I relax you mind so if you leave you won't go back crazy

Say you wanna leave me, say okay baby
I see you got your reasons, its okay baby
Say you never needed me, okay
I see that you just needed your space

Baby
You make me feel like I'm living the movie Casino
I'm Robert DeNiro, you Ginger
And the pimp is outside
What you gone choose?
Matter fact, I'm gonna give you the space to figure it out
