

As We Open, So We Close

OMD

Have you seen the cold facade?
Concrete hands so scaled and scarred
Did you touch this cruel veneer
Born of pain and forged in tears

Veil of sorrow washed away
Bathed in love, I'm new today
Take me to your fragile place
I promise I will show you my real face

As we open, so we close
As we open, so we close
As we open, so we close

As we open... so we close
Close
Close
