

Liberation

Omen

Ha, with blessing to be inspired
Visualizing the manifest and things I desired
The most intelligent, intellectual, never [?]
My beat [?] rhymes, my own dynamic duo
I have them bitter, have them shiver and have them quiver
My destiny's to be fly, call me caterpillar
A visionary I've seen things that haven't happened
The [?] started rapping
Analyzing, deliberating, staying up at night
Questioning why I'm afraid of the heights
Maybe I was raised to [?]
Tell me how you so shy put your blaze in the mike
Unexplainable god gave me these flames to ignite
Such a long journey here but I stayed on the height
Motivated by my team told me dream, told me stop second guessing
I bless them [?] friends, [?] competition

Liberation, liberation, liberation, yeah

Everybody telling me I'm next, [?] my fear is the best sidekick
Tell your favor rappers better wear they best diapers
Cause I'm here, I could smell your fear
Your whole career just turned into a puddle of tears
Heard them say I'm way too quiet to achieve my plans
If they only knew the loudest is the weakest man
Name omen but the money read an alias
Nobody's above me [?]
I never worry about a hater, I know I wasn't made to fail
People really only hate you when they hate themselves
Got a lot of new friends and they think it's hell
They behind me but they try to form a paper trail
I just wanna feel comfortable [?]
[?] I'm feeling I can find my dream in the night
That's not a train [?] I see the light

Liberation, liberation, liberation, yeah

They can't imagine what I feel in my life
Through the madness, sunken in the sands of sadness
I tell you why your [?] are my [?]
I'm like the lectures, I decide your [?] access
I grew around [?] culture [?]
Dark killer trying to survive [?]
So they act wild, another black child, smoking on black [?]
None of them know [?] don't know our background
Never made the king's list but we young black genius
Be tailor made of my own [?]

I told you before, I do it for the dreamers yeah
I told you before, I do it for the dreamers
I told you before, I do it for the dreamers
Liberation.
