

Zion

Omen

[Intro]

I'm just a block away from Zion
A block away from Zion

[Verse 1]

Scabs, scars and wounds
Know I'm just a man, but I stand far from tombs
Built like a pyramid, I'm damn far from ruined
My great hunger could turn my notebook to the 8th Wonder
Swear getting older's kinda scary
When all the women that I used to love now getting married
And the rest of these girls is just a drag like Tyler Perry
I think about you often, in a coffee shop in Boston
I look in your eyes, procede with caution
Your head's on my chest, body's on my brain
No needle in hand and yet your rush is in my veins
Everyday we be texting, play ghetto 20 questions
Be lying if I told you I wasn't thinking 'bout sexing
Maybe I should slow down, cause damn I'm catching feelings
I say I'm not gon' call you, change my mind in 5 minutes
A block away from Zion as I squeeze on her clouds
Rain drops cleanse my soul whenever I'm feeling down

[Hook]

I say nothin' make a man feel better than a woman
Nothin' make a man feel better than a woman
Nothin' make a man feel better than a Queen with a crown that be down for wh atever
I say nothin' make a man feel better than a woman
Nothin' make a man feel better than a woman
Nothin' make a man feel better than a Queen with a crown that be down for wh atever

[Post-Hook]

She's down for whatever (is she down?)
You know she's down for whatever (forever down?)
Ay, she's down for whatever (is she down?)
She's down for whatever (forever down?)
You know she's down for whatever (is she down?)
Ay, she's down for whatever (forever down?)
Ay, she's down for whatever (is she down?)
You know she's down for whatever (hey)

[Verse 2]

No Donald Trump, Bill Gates or Bruce Wayne
The only thing I had to my name was a few dreams
Circling through the party, I'm recognized hardly I'm far from a Paul McCartney, nobody asks for a Sharpie
20 bucks at the door, that's what they charge for the cover
Tell me why we pay to go in, standing, watching each other
She asked me "Is it love or lust?"
The same reason little boys be watching double dutch
Just waiting for that perfect chance
That maybe she would consider you to be her perfect man
Could this lightskin bald boy be your perfect ten?
Girl you looking for trouble? I could be your perfect sin

Not that baller in VIP but I'm hard working and got potential
So tell me what you in to
I love your nose ring and the piercing right by your dimple
A block away from Zion as I squeeze on her clouds
Rain drops cleanse my soul whenever I'm feeling down

[Hook]
