

A New Beginning

OmenXIII

When I sleep I do not rest
A new challenge, a new quest
If you seek then you shall find
But will you find the emptiness?
I can see inside the darkness when I am inside of my head
In my mind, at least I think I can
At least if I think I can
I think I found a place
But I'm not sure if its even mine
A place of relativity where I can freely observe time
Where matter doesn't matter, and neither do I
A place where the limit is so much higher than the sky
A whole new set rules, just scratch them one at a time
