

Hold on Let me tell you what I seen, in this scene bitch
Get a couple plays, hit LA, and you think you sick
Ain't nobody that I'm fuckin with that knows you exist
All these bitches shady, switchin lanes, on the internet
Tell me who you know, tell me who the fuck you came with I'ma tell you I don't give a fuck, you ain't sayin' shit
I'ma be the first to let you know, I think you a bitch
Ice cold facts, fuck rap, I'm the difference
Show me what you got, grab your Glock, pull the trigger bitch
You can't take my life, you can only end the bitterness
Ignorance, somethin' I don't fuck with
Catch me in the pit, come fuck with this function
What the fuck you mean you never seen a fuckin blood bath
I've been killin rappers on sight like a psycopath
Psycho Michael Meyers til I die, and my eyes collapse
I pulled up on him he said "it was a just typo man."

You the type of man to take your life when you see me bitch
I know I got a lotta people watchin and they see me bitch
Fuck a fake a clique, I know how to keep my distance
Leave somebody bitchless, and I ain't have to hit it
Listen
You the type of man to take your life when you see me bitch
I know a lotta people watchin and I know they see me bitch
Fuck a fake a clique, I know how to keep my distance
Leave somebody bitchless, and I ain't have to hit it

The fuck is goin' on, I can see them boys flexin
I'm bout to run shit, I don't think they got the message
Question, where the fuck were you when I was desperate?
Professor XIII, let me teach yo ass a lesson
Every single day the sun drops, when the moon rise
Do not go outside, in my sight when it's night time
I'm the king of demons, prince of shadows plotting genocide
On every motherfucker with the nerve to disturb my paradise
Emphasizing specialized attire from my enterprise
Desentizing every last emotion like I'm mechanized
Recognize, OmenXIII leave you paralyzed
Butterfly Knives take your lives for the sacrifice
