

Burn

OmenXIII

Same shit every day
Every day I'm on replay
I don't wanna see no faces
I don't wanna hear no names

I just wanna see the flames
Let it burn, let it burn
Twist and turn, twist and turn
I know it hurts, I know it hurts

Swaying in the shadows, I still do this every day
I could tell you stay, but I know you will run away
OmenXIII seal your fate then disappear without a trace
I know I could take your life but you can only take my pain

Let it burn
