

Woke up in a world that I don't feel like I belong in Separated by my perspective, I've gotta move on quick Everything's subjective to me, you've gotta make choices Otherwise, there's others that will try to come and enforce the m
Me, I do whatever I feel helps me get through the next phase Next day, next night, whatever comes next I Take these moments in my life, try to make some sense of time Reckless minds like mine could never be censored by these other minds

Everything is unimportant when you're not afraid to decline, no t afraid to decline
Cause we always moving forward bitch we never fuckin rewind, ne ver fuckin rewind
Everything is unimportant when you're not afraid to decline, no
t afraid to decline
Cause we always moving forward bitch we never fuckin rewind, ne ver fuckin rewind
