

Ee-yea-ah!

This is your reckoning
Every moment that you've wasted ends here
Shadows fall and then your light starts fading
I think it's safe to say your time is running out
Fire will rain from the sky
Your life is mine, your life is mine
Bloodshed, misery
Welcome to mortality

CHROMA keys screamin', "Please delete 'em.", bitch, now watch me hack

I came up on a couple bands, I made 'em flip, now watch 'em stack

If you enter my fuckin' presence raise my hand and push you back

Say you rap? Where the fuck you at? Where yo fuckin' facts?

I don't rest, said you play the game but I ain't seen you yet

I don't flex, I just say this shit to get it off my chest

I confess, things are changing every time that I assess

You recess, you stay quiet til it's time for self-defense

I attack, I'm the gatekeeper, I keep you on yo back

We in black, we all in yo city, you know where we at

Chieffin' thrax, we be smokin' that, bitch, we smokin' packs

Thought you trap? But we see you lack, bitch, that's why you whack

You need to step aside, this a fuckin' genocide

Everything in sight goes up in fire, nothing left alive

I don't fuck with any side, my eyes cannot specify

Manipulate, mutilate, and leave that motherfucker terrified

Ee-yea-ah!
