

Cloak & Dagger

OmenXIII

Cloak and dagger, disappear, damage them
Blood up on my hands, it got me feelin' so ravenous
Always on the hunt, bitch, I ain't runnin' out of stamina
I'm running through these motherfuckin' checks
Like where the challengers?
Never on the radar so you need to up your caliber
You ain't competition, you look like you need a level up
I am never passive, I'm the motherfuckin' ravager
I'm comin' if you interrupt the balance of my anima

Hope in the dark, your lies gone
You've been living life in denial
Bitch, watch me smoke, I can feel it, my eye's low
I might fuck around with my knife, hoe
Sip and I pour til' I feel like my mind slow
I been doin' this for a while
Bitch, I was broke til' I got it on my own
Now I bring it down on arrival

The right, the wrong, the light, the dark
The time departs to infinity and never will it matter
The fight in me can rise and speak
Collide and breach, infiltrating separate 'em like a guillotine
So tell me what the fuck you really see in me?
I'm the King Of The Demon's from deep underneath
How the fuck you gonna step up to the Demigod
When I'm the only that can bring damage without being seen?

OmenXIII brought them blades out
OmenXIII finna blaze now
OmenXIII don't fuck with anything
And they know this shit ain't just a phase now
Ink goin' in, I can't fade out
Look at how all this shit played out
Bitch, you should get with the program
I'm risin' like smoke, once I go ain't no comin' down

Comin' down, comin' down, my reign, comin' down
Comin' down, comin' down, my reign, comin' down
Comin' down, comin' down, my reign, comin' down
Comin' down, comin' down, my reign, comin' down
