When I'm on my grind, I'm calm and I'm ready
I stay out my feelings, if I want some digits, I get up and get 'em (you get me, you feel me)
Never been the one to paper chase, but the blue faces convinced me (you get me, you feel me)
Never been the one to paper chase, but the blue faces convinced me (you get me, you feel me)

Pull up in yo city, and fuck on some bitches
Pull up in yo city, I tear up the venue, and leave that bitch richer
I don't feel no pity, you cannot convince me
I came out the struggle, I still didn't switch up, I'm still in my city

I feel alone and I let myself feel that way
I smoke my drugs, it helps keep all the pain away
I sip on liquor, I feel the ice in my veins
I make my choices, regret has no place for me

I face my consequences every day
Then I assess the results of my pain
Life in my shoes made my perspectives change
I can't switch up on myself or my ways

Keep it all, on the low
You can think what you know
Bitch, you know, or you don't
You don't know, what we know

Streetlights, fast cars
Street life, fast drugs
Streetlights, fast cars
Street life, fast drugs

Now I don't care if they fall
I don't give a fuck if they fall
I could change a life with one call
I could take a life with one call

When they see me walkin', they don't see me talkin', they know I'm a boss
My work ain't no hobby, I'm makin' the profit 'cause I make the calls

I don't think you poppin', I think you should stop it, we realer then y'all
No ice and no watches, I don't do no shopping, the cash in the vault

But that's just until we ready
Bitch, when I want to I spend it
I shopped for my Audi, I shopped for my housing, I need it I get it

I know it seems I'm complacent, I just been patiently waiting
Some people be hating, but I ain't complaining it don't even phase me
'Cause some situations that humans created have made me feel jaded
I have no control over some things that change and I love and I hate it

I feel alone and I let myself feel that way
I smoke my drugs, it helps keep all the pain away
I sip on liquor, I feel the ice in my veins
I make my choices, regret has no place for me

I face my consequences every day (streetlights, fast cars, street life, fast drugs)
Then I assess the results of my pain (streetlights, fast cars, street life, fast drugs)
Life in my shoes made my perspectives change (streetlights, fast cars, stree t life, fast drugs)
I can't switch up on myself or my ways (streetlights, fast cars, street life , fast drugs)

If you need them drugs you, better hit my line
Said she never tried, but now she off the white
If you on my line just please don't waste my time
Smoke a fuckin' blunt and now I'm in the sky

Brought some dope, it's like I brought the fuckin' sky
Brought some dope, now everybody fuckin' high
Smokin' kush and sippin', I might bump the white
Smokin' kush and sippin', I can't feel tonight

I feel alone and I let myself feel that way
I smoke my drugs, it helps keep all the pain away
I sip on liquor, I feel the ice in my veins
I make my choices, regret has no place for me

I face my consequences every day (streetlights, fast cars, street life, fast drugs)
Then I assess the results of my pain (streetlights, fast cars, street life, fast drugs)
Life in my shoes made my perspectives change (streetlights, fast cars, stree t life, fast drugs)
