

Crows

OmenXIII

I don't really feel this shit when you flex now
Lately, I've been feeling really pressed down
Depressed, now rest, I'ma let down
Been stressed out, chest in the rest now
Been up two days, can't doze off
So I got wet bread in the stove top
Locked door, got the whole world closed off
Closed off 'cause I don't fuck with robots
Robots have a life and a lifestyle
I don't do what they like so I'm exiled
See, you know the dark man was a bad child
Reminisce, submit to a slice mild
OmenXIII raised the bar quick
Beat the whole game, disappear like guitar picks
Cold like the arctics still got the arson
Harvest the garden
Once was an artist, now it's just a carcass
I am no stranger to relevance
I've just been hanging around for the hell of it
I am a ghost and my flow is so eloquent
Your arrogance is what makes you so delicate
You don't know who I am, so don't act like you do
'Cause I am the one that you cannot see through
Don't worry 'bout me, I'm just worried 'bout you

I know, I know, I know, I know how you've been feeling
The crows are in the sky so tell me what the deal is
I know, I know, I know, I know how you've been feeling
The crows are in the sky so tell me what the deal is
