

Dancing With Demons

OmenXIII

There's some things I can't let go, always dancing toe to toe
Are my demon's mine alone? Am I just their place called home?
Coexistence is the key, that's what they always told me
Still I feel like it's just me, when I lay and fall asleep

There's some things that we can't see, we create what we believe
Darkness can be anything, anything you want to see, anything you want to see
