

DIE! DIE! DIE!

OmenXIII

(Charlie Shuffler)

Die, die, die, die, die, die
Die, die, die, die, die, die
Die, die, die, die, die, die
Die, die, die, die, die, die

Sometimes life starts getting hard
And we struggle just to get through it all
Put my back to the wall, I can't fall
Put my back to the wall, I can't fall
Sometimes life keeps getting rough
And we struggle to keep pickin' it up
Don't care if you like what the fuck I've become
Don't care if you like what the fuck I've become

I got lots of anger in my mind
I can't let it go unless I try
Shawty, I don't like to see you cry
You can let me go if you just try
Audi A3 when I drive
Butterfly blade be the knife
I've been feeling distant my whole life
When I don't wanna talk, I wanna die

Die, die, die, die, die
Why do we live, just to die?
Why do we laugh, just to cry?
Why do the days end with nights?

Die, die, die, die, die, die
Die, die, die, die, die, die
Die, die, die, die, die, die
Die, die, die, die, die, die

Sometimes life starts getting hard
And we struggle just to get through it all
Put my back to the wall, I can't fall
Put my back to the wall, I can't fall
Sometimes life keeps getting rough
And we struggle to keep pickin' it up
Don't care if you like what the fuck I've become
Don't care if you like what the fuck I've become

Money comin' in, that's daily
I am just a fraction of matter, what does that make me?
I can't let the pain erase me
Backing up my data, the ana just cannot phase me
I can't wait for nothing, got too much on the line
Feels like inside, I can feel it when a part of me dies
Sometimes it all comes back together and I'm living a lie
Because when I don't wanna talk, I wanna die

Die, die, die, die, die
Why do we live, just to die?
Why do we laugh, just to cry?
Why do the days end with nights?

Sometimes life starts getting hard
And we struggle just to get through it all
Put my back to the wall, I can't fall
Put my back to the wall, I can't fall
Sometimes life keeps getting rough
And we struggle to keep pickin' it up
Don't care if you like what the fuck I've become
Don't care if you like what the fuck I've become

Die, die, die, die, die, die
Die, die, die, die, die, die
Die, die, die, die, die, die
Die, die, die, die, die, die
