Emptiness

Emptiness

Lost in my ways and I'm fighting temptations
My contemplation is justified patience
My innovations are my complications
Thoughts in my mind keep me lost so I'm vacant
I try and try just to change and I hate it
Tears feel the same anyways at the days end
All of the pain I contain keeps me jaded
I know I'm selfish I want to die painless

I'm motivated to live, no complaining
But I don't feel right just because I survive
I'm motivated to live, no complaining
But I don't feel right just because I survive

I don't wanna die
I'll live another lie
Just take the pain away from me
I'm trapped inside my mind

I'm blind
I'm blind
I'm blind
I'm blind

Please help me find a way from this
This absence, all of this emptiness

This emptiness
This emptiness
This emptiness
This emptiness

Empty bliss
Empty bliss
Empty bliss
Empty bliss

Walk the line, I hope I don't fall
On the edge, of sanity now
Life in my mind left me careless and cold
All of these lies just leave stories untold

Sadness and gladness, it's madness I've I had it
Dance with my demons, I love when we're dancin'
Lost in my feelings, I love feeling crazy
I saw the future, now I see it fading

Frost in my veins, and the shackles and chains
Capture my essence, depression feels grey
Kept from my sanity, kept by my pain
Kept from humanity, keep me away

I don't wanna live
I don't wanna die
I don't wanna live
I don't wanna die

I don't wanna die
I'll live another lie
Just take the pain away from me
I'm trapped inside my mind

I'm blind
I'm blind
I'm blind
I'm blind

Please help me find a way from this
This absence, all of this emptiness

This emptiness
This emptiness
This emptiness
This emptiness

Empty bliss
Empty bliss
Empty bliss
Empty bliss
