

Empty Dreams

OmenXIII

Running myself in the ground
Just to find out how to get out
Losing sleep over my dreams
Dreaming I could go to sleep
I'm sailing on an empty sea
With drips of mistakes splashing me
I'm flying in a cloudy sky
With foggy hope stuck in my eyes
In my eyes, my eyes
I'm sailing on an empty...

Sailing on an empty dream, life is strange when I can't sleep
Up all night just with my thoughts, I can't seem to shut them off
Tell me, why do you wanna die? Tell me, why do you wanna die?
Tell me, why do you wanna die? It's alright, it's alright
