

I'm Sorry

OmenXIII

Wake up, head feeling numb
First thing to the drugs
Smoke rise before the sun
Back inside when I'm done
On my grind, never stop
Always on, never flop
Think you hard, But you not
Think we cool, but I'm hot
I'm on top, of the trees
Lookin' down at the scene
I can see, everything
I don't like what I see
Everybody act lame
OmenXIII still the same
Misfit of the game
I don't ever wanna change
I'm not here to impress ya
I've been out here teaching lessons
With the pain in my possession
Paint the image, spread the message
I ain't never actin lazy
I ain't never sittin' waitin'
Heavy facts up in rotation
Hate the player? change the station
I been throwing down
For a minute, I don't kick it with anybody now
King of the Demons don't need no crown
Just me, so just don't fuck with me
How could you think that I would forget
Never fucked with me then, so please don't pretend
And one more thing, I'm the reason you can't
And will not, shall not ever pass

By myself, By myself I'm
By myself, By myself I'm
By myself, By myself I'm
By myself, By myself I'm
By myself, By myself I'm
By myself, By myself I'm
By myself, By myself I'm
By myself, By myself I'm

I never listened so just know I'm still not hearing ya
Never fit in but rejection builds character
Underneath the radar whenever I'm in the area
See the mainstream vs me, no comparison
Don't seem like anything can ever hold my focus
Nowadays don't click, I just keep scrollin'
Omen rollin' smoking, till I'm steady over-flowing
Rappers think they cold, but I'm subzero frozen

By myself, By myself I'm
By myself, By myself I'm
By myself, By myself I'm
By myself, By myself I'm
By myself, By myself I'm

By myself, By myself I'm
By myself, By myself I'm
