

I've lost emotions or rather they're hard to find
My thoughts are hopeless, I'm lost when I shut my eyes
I smoke and pain starts to disappear from my mind
I grab my knife if they testin' me, that's on sight
A thousand swings comin' at you from side to side
Ten thousand bodies be droppin' out from my sight
Not many options, they left me with only nine
Kill, kill, kill, kill, kill, kill, and kill, and kill
Bitch, I keep it real (aha), bitch fuck how you feel (you know)
I did this shit all by myself so fuck a major deal (fuck)
They keep offering millions and I won't do it still (no, I won't)
'Cause all these racks that I got cannot satisfy me still (no, they can't)

Bitch, I don't fuck with nobody
They wanna fuck with me probably
I stay inside to keep from the heat
I be outside when I wanna be
I'm in the shadows, I'm pulling strings
They can complain, but who stoppin' me?
They let the fake right up in the scene
I never stood by those wanna be's
Get the fuck back if you wanna breathe
You know my gaze leave 'em stumbling
You know the fake always crumbling
Bitch, I get paid how I wanna be
I know the way so they follow me
I'm like an angel, that's wandering
I haven't fallen, I'm underneath
Bitch, I'm still right where I wanna be

My life was hard, I got harder than that with time
Still, don't like the commotion I stay inside
I shed the light from the darkness where I reside
I feel apart, so a part of me has to fight (that's why I fight)
I tell the truth and that's why all the others lie (that's why they lie)
I got eyes and ears lurkin' on every side
You can run from the reaper but cannot hide (you cannot hide)
I can whisper to demons and make you mine (I'll take your life)

Bitch, I don't fuck with nobody
They wanna fuck with me probably
I stay inside to keep from the heat
I be outside when I wanna be
I'm in the shadows, I'm pulling strings
They can complain, but who stoppin' me?
They let the fake right up in the scene
I never stood by those wanna be's
Get the fuck back if you wanna breathe
You know my gaze leave 'em stumbling
You know the fake always crumbling
Bitch, I get paid how I wanna be
I know the way so they follow me
I'm like an angel, that's wandering
I haven't fallen, I'm underneath
Bitch, I'm still right where I wanna be
