Let Go

OmenXIII

The walls, they surround me, start caving in slowly and I canno t see a way out I'm all alone, do this shit on my own, used to struggle but loo k at me now
Still struggle, but I see the light from the shadows that I res ide in Somebody please remind me, what is the point of trying?
To see yourself in a better place, to see yourself better every day
To separate from the pain, leave behind the mistakes and live l ife in a better way

Leave it all behind tonight, I leave it all behind
Leave it all behind tonight, I leave it all behind

Solitude, that friend of mine, I ride with knives, they by my s ide
Quiet guy, no quiet mind, don't try me if you like your life Precious journey, journal pages, MP3's, spread like disease Introvert asserting purpose, curtains dropping on the scene

I live in the thoughts, I breathe in the hopes and dreams of in dividuals
I reside somewhere in-between the lines, confined by my mind bu t that's alright now, here right now, we take a stand Not a stand for, a stand against Against any opposition, competition, anybody, anything between us and satisfaction

Leave it all behind tonight, leave it all behind tonight
Leave it all behind tonight, leave it all behind tonight
Leave it all behind tonight, leave it all behind tonight
Leave it all behind tonight, leave it all behind tonight

Leave it all behind tonight, I leave it all behind
Leave it all behind tonight, I leave it all behind

Leave it all behind tonight, I leave it all behind
Leave it all behind tonight, I leave it all behind
