

Nowadays actin' like I don't got no line
Seperate me from myself with a cold knife
Bury me in a place with no light
No thoughts, no time, and no life
I see everything, but feel like I am so blind
Both sides got perspectives for their own side
Still, kinfolk killin' off their own kind
You will never find diamonds in a coal mine
Everybody worthless in the end so
I can't find emotions for myself, it's like my head broke
I been gettin' high so I don't feel low
Sippin' in silence, smokin' on crescendo
Smoke dissipate every second that the wind blow
Time defabricates and the days turn to limbo
Life is a labyrinth that light could never expose
I am a survivor, every night I'm tryna get home

Nothing to nothing (Nothing to nothing)
Nothing to nothing (Nothing to nothing)
Nothing to nothing (Nothing to nothing)
Nothing to nothing (Nothing to nothing)
Nothing to nothing (Nothing to nothing)
Nothing to nothing (Nothing to nothing)
Nothing to nothing (Nothing to nothing)
Nothing to nothing (Nothing to...)
