

I was anti-social, I didn't wanna be around nobody, I didn't want nobody around me. I wanted to be by myself, everything made me angry, you know? And I would take a lot of it out on myself then I would feel better

Fuck with me, they fuck with me

Fuck with me, they fuck with...

They fuck with me, they fuck with me

They fuck with me, they fuck with me

Fuck with me, they fuck with me, they fuck with me

They fuck with me? Bitch, I wish you would

Bitch, you wish you could

I'm a king, keep that understood

Bitch, watch where you stand, on demand

10 thousand demons ready to attack, fuck yo set

Always steady flex but you do not impress

Where you at? Where you at?

Bitch, we posted in the back

All black, counting stacks

We got bands, we want racks

Issues on issues on issues

All that you have when it's your time you misuse

You are not the only one that's been through shit

At the bottom of the barrel, don't you ever get it switched

Bitch

Switchblade swanging, switchblade slaying

Switchblade swanging, switchblade slaying

Money stack, in the shadows, 50-50 on these tracks

Where you at? Spend a half, flip that shit and make it back

Where you at? Never had a rack from doing what I want

But now I do, try to fuck with us but we won't fuck with you

Where you at? Where you at?

Where you at? Where you at?

Where you at? Where you at?

Where you at? Where you at?

Where you at? Where you at?

Where you at? Where you at?

Where you at? Where you at?

Where you at? Where you at?

Where you at?

Where you at?

Where you at?

Where you at?

Where you at?
