You don't know me
No, you do not know me, nah
You don't know me
No, you do not know me, nah
You don't know me
No, you do not know me, nah
You don't know me
No, you do not know me, nah

You don't know me, you don't know anything
I see the hate but to me it's just jealousy
Desperately typing on keys, I can see through the enmity
There's no complexity
You look for approval, I do not have that dependancy
You look to make moves but as usual you just keep moving without no integrity
You step to me then I'll be your last enemy
My specialty shortens your life expectancy
I'll show you what to expect when you only show trechery
OmenXIII and there ain't nothin left of me
I was the kid with the blade to my wrist every night in my home
I was the kid with a couple friends and I still felt all alone
I couldn't talk to nobody that would understand
I couldn't talk to my parents my siblings, my friends
Music was the only thing there for me
I was the kid at night that couldn't go to sleep
I was the kid that hoped nobody notice me
Everyone tryna tell me what the fuck I'm supposed to be
I feel like I heard it all, feel like I seen it all
Tell me whose dreams am I dreamin if I just want freedom
Somebody please come make the bleeding stop

You don't know me
No, you do not know me, nah
You don't know me
No, you do not know me, nah
You don't know me
No, you do not know me, nah
You don't know me
No, you do not know me, nah
