

Workin' on my net worth, do it on my network
You've been movin' work, boy, I just make the net work BlackWidow Razer, bitch, I'm pushin' keys, huh?
They call me the hacker, now watch me delete ya

Creepin' up in the game, creatin' lanes while I infiltrate
All black, late night, they can't even see my face
Got that butterfly blade up on my waist and I won't hesitate
If you runnin' up, we cut you down, I really hope you feel the pain
Bitch, we ain't the same, you a lame, tryna get to the fame
I'm just tryna create a world for me and _Blk to escape
All the pressure on us, but we never fallin'
Fuck around with some drama, we could put you in coffin

Workin' on my net worth, do it on my network
