

On Second Thought,

OmenXIII

Yes I am the reaper, the reason you're losing sleep is cause of me
Cause of all the darkness, agony, misery that I bring
I only wanna help you and guide you to the truth
But if you're scared let me know, cause you don't even have to go
You don't even have to know, all the things that I know
All the things that they show, are really all just for show
Don't get lost in a world that you can't understand Don't believe a single thing that they feed you just cause you can

Know you can't, No you don't, Don't keep lyin to yourself
Sayin it will be alright, when you know that that's a lie
Don't you ever doubt yourself when you get that feeling inside
It's okay when something's wrong, if you know you can make it r ight
Take the time, take the chance
Take a breath, take a step
Take a risk, You don't really wanna wonder what it could've bee n
You don't really wanna wonder what it could have been
You don't really wanna wonder what it could have been
You don't really wanna wonder what it could have been
You don't really wanna wonder what it could have been
