

Shhhhhh (I don't fuck with nobody)

I don't fuck with nobody
I don't fuck with nobody
I don't fuck with nobody
I don't fuck with nobody
I don't fuck with nobody
I don't fuck with nobody
I don't fuck with nobody

I don't fuck with nobody, nobody to fuck with OmenXIII stay away from the public
OmenXIII stay away from the fuck shit
A select few that I trust that can run shit
You know that I run shit
Butterflies, studded belts, black nails, Drop Dead
I don't need a fuckin' trend
I just want the fuckin' end
I just wanna disappear
The thoughts in my mind are designed to help me make it clear
I could show you things you're afraid to give in to
I could tell you things that you're scared to admit to
Days of my life like the air in my room
Everything is the same even if it feels new

Riding 'round in yo' city, rollin' 'round with some misfits
Ain't no telling who's with me, I got the blade, I admit it
I got the Rossi I'm sippin', losin' track of the minutes
I don't need no time, if I did I would get it
Riding 'round in yo' city, rollin' 'round with some misfits
Ain't no telling who's with me, I got the blade, I admit it
I got the Rossi I'm sippin', losin' track of the minutes
I don't need no time, if I did I would get it

I seen your friends and I heard of your enemies
Neither of those is a threat to me
'Specially anyone ridin' with you
You support things that I do not approve
I don't need opinions from the minds of the weak
I don't need a friend that don't need me
I don't need love to help me breathe
I don't need a reason to ever be me
Step up to me and feel my apathy
The shadows will drop and then you'll really see
You shouldn't never have challenged the King
The King Of The Demons from deep underneath

I don't fuck with nobody
I don't fuck with nobody
I don't fuck with nobody
I don't fuck with nobody
I don't fuck with nobody
I don't fuck with nobody
I don't fuck with nobody
I don't fuck with nobody
