Pressure

OmenXIII

I can flip it for the high, I drop bodies on the low
I do a lot of things you know, and a lot of things you don't Illegal weapons in my pocket when I'm walkin out the house
Saw you typin, heard you talkin, you got lost were never found
If I go off don't stay around, I'ma drop you then I'm out
Then it's back into the cut, drag me back into the mud
Anything or any reason just to keep me from the sun
I ain't hidin' I ain't seekin' if you see me better run
I ain't lyin, you a bitch, you gon' regret it if you don't Find your body six months later coexisting with the mold
Flow existing like a God, infinite can't never stop
OmenXIII beat the odds, XIII ain't on the clock
XIII ain't part of time, XIII cannot be stopped
XIII can never die, XIII won't ever flop
OmenXIII black shirt black jeans, you can feel it when you pass me Feel the chills up in your spine because of all the darkness I bring Because all the pain inside me is something, I can't contain
And It's something that I hate, something I just can't negate
So I struggle with the feeling of feeling every day
And I struggle with the feeling of breathing when I just can't
And I struggle with the feeling of only making mistakes
So I struggle with the feeling of only feeling my pain
But I don't struggle with the feeling of not, seeing the light
I'm a candle in the dark, lantern in the night
Planters on the steps, switchblades in the sky
Dead man on the floor, no tears in my eyes
No feeling inside, that feeling of mine
When I die every night, I used to cry every night
I used to be the person that needed a personal connection with everyb ody that I knew
But then when I got it, I was still scared
Scared of my life, and scared for myself
Scared of never gettin the picture
Never wanna be the one to die alone
But I still still wanna be the one to make the difference
Never wanna be the one that can't be strong

I wanna be the roots, I wanna be the trunk, I wanna be the branches
I wanna be the leaves, I wanna be the blossom that I imagine
I wanna be the roots, I wanna be the trunk, I wanna be the branches
I wanna be the leaves, I wanna be the blossom that I imagine
I wanna be the roots, I wanna be the trunk, I wanna be the branches
I wanna be the leaves, I wanna be the blossom that I imagine
I wanna be the roots, I wanna be the trunk, I wanna be the branches
I wanna be the leaves, I wanna be the blossom that I imagine

But I can't be everything, what you see is what you see
No one left to pick you up, but I will never let you down
