

Rain

OmenXIII

If I could fly, would I even want to
Would it take me away from you
If I could to die, would I take a moment to think it over, or s ieze it
I'm closer now then I was 4 seasons ago

I hate to see you go
(You know I hate to see you go)
Please don't leave me here
It's getting so cold here

In this room (in this world), in my heart
I'm picking up the pieces, but I keep falling apart
Life's so strange, I just can't seem to break these chains

And rain falls down, yes rain falls down
Yes rain falls down, rain falls down

I'm waiting in the rain as it comes down, wind blows, all I fee l is cold now
Cold like my eyes, so I try to keep them closed now
I'm stuck in a box, and I can't find a way out

With a smile on my face, and a chip on my shoulder
I just keep walking, I'll walk til it's over
My hands in my pockets, my head in the clouds
And a voice in my mind, they screaming let me out

And rain falls down, yes rain falls down
Yes rain falls down, rain falls down
